Note: Mid-Continent University partners with the following lenders who have been selected based on the services they provide to our students and their history of efficient processing. Please research each lender's borrower benefits and choose the lender that meets your individual needs. If you prefer a lender that is not on the list, please provide our office with the lender name, lender code, and a completed Master Promissory Note (MPN). We will process your loan with any lender who participates in the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP).
